Check out the website www.agawamlibrary.org/about/friends for a copy of the prospectus-brochure and our fabulous fillable PDF form.

When the fillable PDF form opens save the file on your hard disk or to your cloud file system. The fillable form allows you to type your information with the unique feature that same fields need be entered only once. Being a 3-part form the Name appears in all three parts. Type your Name in one of the Name fields and when you move on to the next field, the other two Name fields will automatically be populated with the same data. You can edit any field, then save the file on your hard disk or to your cloud, come back later to re-edit, and subsequently print. This fillable PDF form is designed to make entering your registration information simple and easy.

Selection & Awards Jurors/Judges

Maureen Cotti

Maureen Cotti is a local multi-medium artist with a current concentration in oil and watercolor painting. She has shown her work at local shows and at the Academic Artist juried art show. She studied at the University of Massachusetts in Amherst with majors in sculpture and printmaking. Maureen is a retired art teacher currently teaching hand-built pottery and is an instructor of oil painting at the Springfield Museum School.

Matthew Mattingly

Matthew Mattingly started drawing at age four, when a baby sitter showed him how to draw a house in perspective, and he was hooked for life. He attended the Worcester Art Museum School, the Boston Museum School, Mass Art Evening School, and studied painting extensively with Paul Rahilly. Mattingly moved to Western Mass in 1996, and quickly became enamored of the local landscape. His work combines this backdrop with his own stories and ideas, expressing both a romantic love of the natural world and a questioning attitude concerning our place in it. He has shown and won awards in several juried exhibitions in the area, in addition to a solo show at the Burnett Gallery in Amherst, MA in September 2017.
