Messages From
The Other Side
with Tina Angeli

Monday, Oct 7 @ 7:00 p.m.

Join Tina as she receives messages from the other side and relays them to people in the audience. She will also have her new book, We Are Angels, which will be available for purchase and signing.

Registration is a must as space is limited. Please call 789-1550 X4 to register or go online at www.agawamlibrary.org. This event is sponsored by the Agawam Center Library Association.

Adult Writer's Workshop
Every Third Thursday
@ 6:30 p.m.
beginning Oct 17

(last Tuesdays beginning in Jan 2020)

Our summer writing workshops were such a success, we are having more! Join award-winning author Katherine Anderson as she welcome writers of all experience levels. Participants will learn the basics of self-publishing and become familiar with submission opportunities in magazines, literary journals and presses. Writers will also have the opportunity to assemble a portfolio and the basics of a query package for submission and publication. Please call 789-1550 X4 or register online at www.agawamlibrary.org, as space is limited.

October Artist Spotlight

The Photography of Richard Harper

"As a retired pharmaceutical chemist....a chemist will tell you that matter can neither be created nor destroyed, only altered. A photographer will tell you that matter can be captured forever. The world is full of beauty and should be preserved for eternity." Mr. Harper's exhibit will run for the month of October. Visitors are welcome during normal business hours.

The Library is Branching Out!

Catch Cher and Wendy on the road this fall at various locations throughout town! Join us at Dunkin on Main Street on October 28th!

Join us for a Community-Wide Festival of Trees!

We are inviting our community to come together to create a one-of-a-kind Festival of Trees at the library this year. Team up with your family, friends, co-workers or teammates to create a DIY tree made from different materials....egg cartons, soda bottles, etc. Trees will be on display at the library during December and there will be a Festival reception on December 19th from 7:00-8:00 p.m. The library will have official guidelines and entry forms available in October. Please call or email Adult Services Librarian, Cher Collins for more information. 789-1550 X8851 or ccollins@agawamlibrary.org

Don't forget! As a library card-holder, you have access to Consumer Reports Online! Just visit our Online Resources page to get started!

It's a Bizarre Bazaar!

We are having a Holiday Swap! Do you have unused Christmas cards or decorations you don't want? Drop off your holiday stuff and come shopping (free of charge!) for something new.

Donations MUST come from a non-smoking home and be clean and in working condition. Please bring items in original packaging or clear zippered bags. NO TOYS OR FOOD, please. Trees must be under 5 feet and lights will only be accepted in original packaging.

Donations will be accepted November 1-9 only.
