Selection & Awards Jurors:

Amy S. Dane

Amy's interest in photography grew from her love of travel. This self-proclaimed "travel addict" has visited approximately 120 countries thus far. A freelance lecturer, Amy enjoys sharing her global excursions by giving culturally informative presentations. Her two degrees in art history give her an added dimension and an often-unique perspective as a judge.

A member of and a judge for the Springfield Photographic Society, Amy won "Picture of the Year" at their annual end of year competition in 2019. Dane has also judged juried competitions for the 3rd Annual Scantic River Artisans Juried Art Show (Hampden, MA) and the Sadie & Eli Gurvitch Memorial Adult Art Exhibit at the Springfield Jewish Community Center.

Amy has mounted many different photography exhibitions at galleries, libraries and hospitals throughout Massachusetts. She has received awards at juried shows including "Best in Show" from the Agawam Public Library and the Robert Floyd Gallery (Southampton). She co-curated an exhibit by Springfield Photographic Society members which opened at the Springfield Museum of Fine Arts in June, 2021 and will remain on view for a full year. She co-curated Capturing Our Worlds: Works by the Springfield Photographic Society at the Michele and Donald D'Amour Museum of Fine Arts (Springfield, MA), on view until June 26, 2022.

Her photography and travel lecture offerings are posted on her website: www.amydaneadventures.com

Barbara Krawczyk

Barb has been a serious photography enthusiast for over 45 years. She serves as President of the Westfield Camera Club and Judge Coordinator & Manager of Exhibition Standards for the Springfield Photographic Society.

She holds the EPSA distinction from the Photographic Society of America. Barb has won numerous awards in PSA-sponsored photographic exhibitions.

Her images have appeared in calendars, newspapers, fairs, web sites, and magazines. She has exhibited at the Robert Floyd Gallery, Springfield Valley Photo Center, Easthampton Media, Westfield Athenaeum, Forbes Library, The Big E, Agawam Library, Cooley Dickinson Hospital, the Hadley Regional Office of US Fish and Wildlife and the Michele and Donald D'Amour Museum of Fine Arts.

Last year she was awarded Pictorial Image of the Year in the New England Camera Club Council's (NECCC) digital interclub competition. She recently was presented a Judge's Choice Award in Nature and a Best Creative Image in an NECCC special digital competition.

This is her fourth time judging
